FORUM AIMS

The International Financial and Banking Forum has become a recognized scientific event, regularly visited by representatives of the world of science, the public finance and banking sectors as well as entrepreneurs from Poland and European countries. We hope that the Forum's idea, as a transnational platform for exchanging scientific views and practical experience, will continue to evolve dynamically and that the debates will contribute to the systematic improvement of existing and new research in such areas as finance, banking, and accounting. This year, the theme of the forum covers a wide range of issues related to public finances and economic growth, as well as the sources of capital gain and effectiveness in business.

We cordially invite,

Dr hab. Mirosław Wasilewski, Assoc. Prof. WULS-SGGW

SCOPE OF THE FORUM

1. Public finance system and economic growth.
2. Functions of commercial and cooperative banks in the economy.
3. The importance of the capital and insurance market in economic growth.
4. Sources of acquisition and capital efficiency in business.
5. The effects of organizational and financial mechanisms on the business entities performance.
6. Information systems supporting financial decisions in enterprises.
